Answer these questions:

- 1). Write a few lines about the king.
- 2). Write a short summary of the story "Three questions".

1.) Why did the king want to know answers to three questions?

Ans:- The king wanted to know answers to three questions because the thought came to him that he would never fail if he knew three things. These three things were: what is the right time to begin something? who is important person for him and what is the most important work for him?

2.) Messengers were sent throughout the kingdom. Why?

Ans:- Messengers were sent throughout the kingdom to announce a reward for those who could answer the questions asked by the King.

1.) Why was the king advised to go to magicians?

Ans:- In order to decide the right ^{time} for doing something, it is necessary to look into the future and only magicians could do that. So, the king was advised to go to magicians.

2.) In answer to the second question, whose advice did the people say would be important to the king?

Ans:- In answer to the second question; the people said that councillors, priests, doctors and soldiers' advice would be important to the king.

3.) What suggestions were made in answer to the third question?

Ans:- In answer to the third question, the people said that science is important, some said fighting and others said religious worship is important to the king.

4.) Did the wise men win the reward? If not, why not?

Ans:- No, the men did not win the reward because their answers were different and the king was not satisfied with them.

5.) How did the king and the hermit help the wounded man?

Ans:- When the wounded man came to the king and the hermit, he fainted then the King washed his wound and dressed it but the bleeding would not stop. The King re-dressed the wound until at last the bleeding stopped and carried him into the hut.

6.) (i.) Who was the bearded man?

Ans :- The bearded man was the enemy of the King.

(ii.) Why did he ask for the king's forgiveness?

Ans :- He asked for the king's forgiveness because he wanted to kill the king, as he swore revenge on the king but the king saved his life.

7.) The king forgave the bearded man. What did he do to show his forgiveness?

Ans :- The king forgave the bearded man and to show his forgiveness he would send his servants and his doctors to look after him and he also promised to give back the man his property.

8.) What were the hermit's answers to the three questions? Write each answer separately. Which answer do you like most, and why?

Ans:- The hermit's answers to the three questions were —

- i.) There is only one time that is important and that time is 'Now.'
- ii.) The most necessary person is the person we are with a particular moment, for no one knows what will happen in the future.
- iii.) The most important business (work) is to do that person good; because we were sent into this world for that purpose alone.
