VISIONARY MAN

Made it all possible

Ara is growing well enough with the adjoining state capital Patna with equal pace, only thing missing was a strong education system. As the existing education was either not at par standard or far away from the reach of lower and middle segment.

With some prominent citizens of Ara he began to think and access the need of a modern school, that can have the quality to incorporate modern techniques as well as the ancient ethics and curriculum. Result Came soon and GYAN JYOTI AWASIYA VIDYALAYA was born on the 4th December 2005.

We express our gratitude and tribute to the great soul, who gave us a wonderful educational environment to learn, to explore, to play, to grow, to compete and to win.
